Ariana just stared at the big mess her parents have made. She was a twelve-year old girl with beautiful long hair. She knew if she argued, she would have been grounded for life, but this was way worse. As she argued with her parents, her parents tried to kill each other! Then she grabbed her backpack and some belongings and ran out of the door.

As running out pretty far, she noticed a homeless kitty. The kitty’s owner must have abandoned her. She saw a tag that said “Ariya” with the kitty. That must be the kitty’s name. They ran into the woods together. From that day on, Ariana and Ariya lived a different life.
In the morning, they woke up from a bed, sticks as the headboard and bed frame, soft grass as the mattress, and a blanket that Ariana brought in her backpack as a quilt. Then Ariana caught some fish with a fishing rod she brought.

They had adventures, at least three a day, and lots of fun!!! Breakfast, lunch, and dinner were always berry, fish, and other food they found in nature.
Brushing teeth and taking baths took place at the pond. Then they could cuddle up and fall asleep. This was just their regular life until one day........

As they were having a daily adventure and finding a new path, Ariana and Ariya heard party noises. It was coming from the end of the path. Ariana and Ariya couldn't wonder too far, or they would get lost, so Ariana thought of a plan. She thought that her hair was so long that it could reach the end of the woods. And her plan worked!!

She carried all her stuff out the woods. she had a long rope two times the size of her hair, and since her hair led her out, she knew this would too. As she did lead herself and Ariya out, she noticed it was almost a year from the day she left. When she got out of the woods, so many townspeople were there. So many familiar faces. And then she saw a banner that said, “HAPPY BIRTHDAY!” It was Ariana’s birthday!

She and the townspeople had so much fun eating cake, (Ariana did not eat cake for a while) playing games, and opening presents\gifts. Ariana and Ariya still return to the forest weekly. They have adventures and enjoy normal life!
