

Last in Line

no one likes to be last in line last to hear
to see
to get to do

i've been last since birth last to crawl
to talk
to graduate
to grow

it's hard to see the front of the line when you're in the back half the time you don't even know what you're standing in line for are you just following the crowd or did you Choose to stand in the line afraid to leave
reluctant to stay Susceptible

nobody enjoys being at the end of a line but you're given examples advice
mistakes to learn from

i've been last in line since birth never gone without a shoulder to cry on to lean on to laugh into

last in line you're the finished copy the one who's learned
loved Endured
and still makes mistakes
