8pm Midsomer Murders

The Incident at Cooper Hill

Mysterious lights are seen in the sky over famous UFO hot-spot Cooper Hill. When a local forest ranger suffers a strange death, the visiting UFO spotters are convinced aliens are responsible. DCI Barnaby and DS Nelson unearth suspicions, betrayals, and long-buried secrets in their search for the truth, centering on the nearby RAF base, including events going back over 20 years when secret research was conducted on aerial spying equipment, and there were secret affairs between villagers and RAF personnel. Guest stars Lee Armstrong (Call The Midwife) and Alison Steadman (Gavin & Stacey).

9pm Father Brown

The Red Death

Sir Charles Hakerworth is garrotted at a New Year's Eve masked ball held at Montague Hall by Lord "Monty" and Lady Felicia Montague. A death threat, stating that the Red Death was coming, had already led to Inspector Mallory closing the estate, trapping the killer. Father Brown with the aid of Mrs

McCarthy, Sid, and Bunty look to discover the killer from four people who knew Hakerworth would be present; his wife, his doctor, Bunty's friend Ruth Moulton, and Robert, Earl of Finchmore whose father committed suicide after Hakerworth's adulterous affair with Robert's mother. Father Brown sees a figure in a red mask escaping after stabbing Moulton. Lady Felicia, unhappy with her marriage, has a decision to make when a one-way airline ticket to New York arrives from Flambeau.

10pm The Carol Burnett Show - Carol's Favorites

Guest Stars: Steve Lawrence, Dick Martin (Rowan & Martin's Laugh-In). Highlights: Dick Martin is the town gigolo on "As The Stomach Turns;" an eye-popping spoof of "Sunset Boulevard" (with the first of many times Carol would play the demented Nora Desmond, and Harvey as her butler Max); Steve (ala Groucho) as a Presidential advisor; and parodies of "Some Like It Hot" "Tea and Sympathy." Steve sings "Losing My Mind" Carol and Vickie as competing airline agents. Also include a salute to Disney (with Carol as Peter Pan); Carol and Steve sing songs that lost Best Song at the Oscars.

8pm Elizabeth and Philip: Love and Duty

As Her Majesty The Queen mourns the loss of His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh, this compelling documentary revisits remarkable events from their long and loving marriage and explores its significance to a nation. Every step of their life together was played out in public and, for over 70 years, the couple played a crucial role in the enduring popularity of the monarchy. Elizabeth and Philip: Love and Duty looks at a partnership built on the strong foundations of mutual respect, a shared sense of humour and a dedication to duty. We hear from contributors ranging from personal friends to royal watchers and from those involved in pivotal moments and milestones in their married life. From their fairytale wedding in 1947, in the spectacular surroundings of Westminster Abbey, Elizabeth and her prince captured the imagination of a nation. Their long marriage was a powerful symbol of durability and strength rooted in the values of an earlier age. Philip was both her husband and the man who swore to serve his Queen until the day he died. The programme explores how the Duke dedicated himself to this unique role and helped the Queen steer Britain through decades of change.
